

Deriv. Apps – 900

- A particle is moving along the curve $x^2 + xy + 2y^2 = 8$. The particle moves so that its x -coordinate moves at a constant 3 inches per second. When $x = 2$, the speeds that the y -coordinate of the particle may be moving